

i 12 p 1 pneu 48

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

22 - 3. 1820

I am deeply th<sup>t</sup>. Dearest, with Michael's poem.
His touch is deeply felt & = & this is the dearest sweetest thing he has done I think.
What an appreciation Editor!

We have to break up earlier than we intended because of an outbreak of measles in the place - So we go off tomorrow (under pressure)

i 12 p 2 Pneu 48

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

I Kit: Kit & I go to the Kewest.
Derwick next week.
Hill while the house is clearing then do you go to Ireland?

I think I see a way of helping the office a little - we shall be perhaps over-staffed next year ~~for~~ may be able to send a speaker here + there.

I enclose two cheering letters. Dear love - even yours
C.M.

Scale How,
Ambleside,

Westmorland

25. 3. 1920
 f 25.
 About
 mix, 3

All night - next year - I at my dear friend's house in 2 year then is trouble, why?
 I asked for water gave him milk - she brought butter in a lovely dish of which you give Bible rendering is - she asked for one sec. & we offer her 2 - The second to be entirely in our employment & under our direction but paid & lived & provided with travelling & other expenses by the said P. M. all your thought & work, dear

That is better in a lovely dish!

Alas, dear lady, try to conceive what - our own expenses keep & you will see that such a scheme is absurd.

Also, I could not have any one in the College whose work was of service

I directed your elsewhere.

So afraid I should find myself able to dispense with her services after 4 weeks notice.

so tell your brother what would not do - your much - loving M

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

W, lay ourselves out to - play while the dear Lady A. is here & so she naturally thinks the whole thing is rather a joke - & that an unusually well organised & well managed college. If I could admit of any outside management or control, my thought is that of the Govt & get a great deal of money help i 13 p 4 pncu 48

in the very difficult task of keeping up a College without endowments, subscriptions or government aid.

But - I know all this was as you say only a sudden "inspiration" - & you will have yourself seen that - it would not do.

It was odd though that our letters should have crossed & that I should have offered some help in the North.

The fact is, in one reason

Scale How,

3

Ambleside,

Westmorland.

+ another Miss Parikh will not do <sup>quite</sup> as much to do as Miss Williams has & may feel that she would like a little of the old work, or to take somebody else's job while that somebody tried (very nicely). but we should confine ourselves to work that comes our way incidentally & should 213 p 6 pnc 48

not be part of the office scheme - though of course we should report on doing what - nice thing the C. (Lady A!) have said about Miss Parry.

I mean we could only do this sort of thing when it suits us

I am heart-hearted & not concerned about your financial straits, dear Lady A.

If you were £1000 in debt that would be anxious - but - I feel sure you will be

i 14 p1 pncu 48

Scale Hoto,
Ambleside.

29. 3. 1920

(Continued)

The more I think of your scheme the more impossible it is. Think, dearest; if you est. Drina Wix for, there will not be a soul in the office who knows anything about either our principles or methods. Then Drina Ph. is away - which means that - you would be an absolute slave to the office. attending say, from eleven to five three or four days a week. Of course such a thing is out of the question & would be a waste of your time. Do think the matter over again.

I have been thinking of putting in a pretty urgent appeal almost an article into the May No. of P. R. That - shd. bring in something. Anyway, <sup>will be coming</sup> ~~should~~ be anxious about pennies - from <sup>will be coming</sup> ~~from~~ students - more from Est. Schools. & we know not what else. We are really more flourishing than ever before. We must not tell the Your loving & grateful Ch. H.O.S.

84 nard 24/61

do many more things for Rogers - which I am not doing - it makes me feel - I am not doing it

That is why I told you before making it. I am very glad you see your way for the present: but - I think something all our subscribers (to P.B.) must be brought to understand what a great national work we are doing, what it is a duty to help. My intention was to ask them to help the country by subscribing each an additional yearly £1. They don't i 15 p 3 price 48

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

2 know how great the thing is & we must try to teach them - sometimes!

About Miss Wix - no doubt we shall come to a compromise if nothing else turns up - But Miss Moppett is only getting £100 a year & her position is not worthy of Miss Wix - but everything will settle itself.
Pleasant God - for indeed

i 15 p 4 pnc 48

For we both feel that He is working through us.
Never had an educational movement - such a success (the Montessori clamor was all pro Th). - Love will just do us very best - + wait -.

Meanwhile, of course I brush you, Dear, & say that you know much more about the working of the office than I do.

16 p 1 pneu 48

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

8. 4. 1820

You to Love it.

to read with Mr.

Dear Love

even

Here is a solution different of many problems.

I was told that I must not let anyone - words

6. I know if I say it not tell you as you did not

Learn to know. W. Herbold

Not intended to call on you

The next time he ~~went~~ to town but that seems long to wait

i 16 p 2 pneu 48

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

I it - was trying not to be able to tell you what the possible compromise was.

It is an encouraging acknowledgment of our work by the B. & M. of course we do not know how it will work - Anyway Mr. Hunsford has done us very good service.

i 16 p 3 pncu 48

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

3

Of course we must not let- things like float into space. She must work from the office as ours must she not?

I do hope, dear, that this will relieve you of some perplexities.

Of course we shall talk only things sweet-pleasant-endeavouring ourselves to keep i 16 p 4 pncd 48

Scale How,
Ambleside,

Westmorland.

4 B

The unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. <sup>min? comes!</sup> Amen Thank you for telling me about your nice Easter + your Passover sermons.

I had nothing from within but yet a helpful Easter - How good to have all at home except the dear Medd!

Today is beautiful but we have had very poor weather.

We return tomorrow - I hope the Times B. C. has sent the Book - I am only i 17 p 1 p neu 48.

Indian X

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

12.4.20

My Dearest,

Thank you for your nice letters & the helpful suggestions for Miss Parikh for the 14th - I am glad you are in England for a change of thought - You indeed, the poor country seems alive

i 17 p 2 pneu 48

on the subject of education. but - only this morning We heard a letter from a poor lady whose child's exam. had been hindered by the entrance of masked armed men. who have been nearly the death of her husband. of course they are going to run away.
I am sending you the

i 17 p 3 pneu 48

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

enclosed which probably you have already seen.

Don't you think Miss Wingate - would be the persons? She would have the necessary tact & perhaps could bear to live where there is little Eng. society - on consideration of a profitable & luxurious post; and the few present consideration of great influence on Indian Schools.

You know I always think we might do immense things for India. +

If you think well write to Miss Wingate - but - beg her to copy the letter if she likes to <sup>me</sup> send it back at once.

A very happy & restful holiday, dearest.

Yr ever loving Chr

i 18p1 pncu
48 ~~atx~~
m P R

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

April 17. 1920

Insufficient?

Your outline is capital + I send it - back to you in the hope that you will think well to put it in the RA as an add - neither you nor I must - again was a student - out of his post. nor would a signed letter in RA do.

i 18p2 pnc4 48

But the Liberator who answers to us of their own free will,
+ who knows what capital people you may get - people we have never thought of.

What a capital letter you imagine - a practical job to played only on one's own household! Ask him to read the author-publisher's Chapter in Rendennis. Such another letter to a publisher or some other poet - should appeal

i. 18 p 3 pneu 48

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

5 am Edith -

I like to think of you at Glenalla having the exquisite weather we have today.

We had a charming visit - from a young 'friend' & family the other day - Yours very much

M. Cordes & his pretty wife who has grown in motherly sweetness & the dearest i 18-p 4 pnea 48

boy of three who had seen his first hedgehog that day & couldn't do anything else but be a hedgehog - a very lively one -

I hope Aunt. you could get - onto the advertisement in the many No. of RB. That would give lots of time for choice. Love love Chr.

i 19 p1 pneu 48

Scale How,

Ambleside,

Westmorland.

20.4.1920

Thank you so much, Dearest; for sending me a box of lovely flannel eggs! And
"egg is egg" these days.

I just mean to enjoy them - to share is difficult - because i 19 p2 pncu 48 2 all the world has breakfast together.

What - about Miss Thorpe? very keen about party but not very strong.

What about Miss Kimpes time in France has given her son Savois. pair -

What about Miss Fletcher? nice mannered and i 19 p 3 page 48

Scale How,

Ambleside,

Westmorland.

3 pleasing but she has been 5 yrs. in India so probably does not know anything about us.

There three are available at the moment - two of them might go to the office on trial till I'm anyway - but I still i 19p4 pney 48

Think our Adols. would get people who really wish for the work.

It is very curious that the Bd. of T. seems to want Doris Wit in October -

Though I can well believe that as changes are to be made you would rather get them over -

It might be possible to get some one <sup>to come</sup> her till the holidays for a little coaching in principles? Yr. loving Mrs.

i 20 p 1 Pneum 48

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

21. 4. 1920

Ch. 48
Pneum

and - like a bad headache but is unusual - tells me how you are about the add. Dearest, 'Expected Addresses' would be a real puzzle.

I was sorry after that posted my last night's note but that forgotten to discuss Miss Brockman. She is a very distinguished ex-student - & I have never had such good talk as when she was my next-door neighbour! I was & am very fond of her.

But — she is extremely diffident — a sort of philosophic diffidence which prevents her ever being sure either of her opinion or of yours. She would like to help me with the R.N. but — this diffidence comes in the way.

weather. It has my rammed her at i 21 p
 Delay today. No. other day
 Scale Hoia
 Ambleside
 Westmorland.
 May 5
 How another 3 is 20
 "deje
 worth
 But "nothing makes any difference" then clear low C 13
 Price 48
 What a quite beautiful letter. Thank you for letting me see it - but it is what I should expect - about. my friend.
 Miss Parist writes "After Franklin spoke magnificently - I wonder how many of those lovely addresses

I shall get for RTB!

It is good to hear that the dear children are so sweet. & how kind Whittier is!

It would be delightful if you could get Miss Curry.
I know she has always been keen abt. propaganda work. Miss Moody has heard nothing at all about the matter so it is not necessary to say anything.

i 21 p 3 pneu 48

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

Of course it is an estimable weakness, but — would not lend itself to propaganda!

Now what do you think of securing one of the names I sent. In a brief brief in the autumn — They are all pretty strong people & are not cranks — We should trust to their becoming infused with pneum doctrine during the brief trip -

I rather wish to go to Wilkinson if we could get her. she is unspoiled & has David's fair - 2nd enthusiasm might come.

Miss Brookman again - Lady Colborne loves her so much & reveres her so much that I certainly do not venture to say 'Bishop'

i 21-p5 pneu 48

I think they have been rather bad & let a pose on two ships.

Is beautifully neat & methodical - In fact is all way desirable -

Has the philosophic mind your coat - - writes a good hand & a good letter -

Am I not - good?

Ch.

i 21-p6 pneu 48

Scale Hoar,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

P.S. What about Miss Brand?
Is your name so c<sup>d</sup> get a little training - most pleasing - rather enthusiastic app<sup>r</sup>h<sup>n</sup>s.

Much change - wants work in London, but - is waiting to hear from a post in Canada wh<sup>ch</sup> tells her parley - Is the thing w<sup>d</sup> be to sign on her before this post writes